DANIEL KIM

What was your favorite memory with Covenant Youth Ministry?

Just being there in the present now with great friends and leaders

What person (current or historical) do you most admire and why?

Someone that I admire the most is definitely my d-group (the boys) because even though we had other plans during our last love austin and fall retreat, we still made it our goal to finish with the others who had to leave during the week, and they did finish with us. So it pretty much was a win-win situation for us.
